THE COACHES

MIKE TOMLIN was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on Jan. 22, 2007. Tomlin was the Minnesota Vikings defensive coordinator in 2006 after spending the previous five seasons (2001-05) as defensive backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Tomlin is 6-2 in the preseason in his two years as head coach, including a 2-1 mark in 2008.

Tomlin was 10-6 in his first season as the Steelers head coach. He is just the second coach in team history to have a winning record in his first season at the helm (Bill Cowher).

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6).

The Vikings defense ranked eighth in the NFL and first against the run in Tomlin's only season as defensive coordinator. The Vikings did not allow a 100-yard rusher and held Detroit to minus-three yards rushing on Dec. 10.

Before becoming Minnesota's defensive coordinator, Tomlin was a part of one of the top defenses in the league during the previous five seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as their defensive backs coach. Tomlin's defensive backs earned numerous honors for their play during his coaching tenure. In 2005 Tampa Bay led the NFL in total defense, allowing 277.8 yards per game, and finished 6th in the NFL in passing defense at 183.1 yards per game.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary unit there that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season in '99. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in INTs as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State. He coached the wide receivers there in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William and Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,046 yards and a school-record 20 TD catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards per catch average.

JOHN FOX was a relatively unknown NFL assistant when the Carolina Panthers selected him to guide their football team in January of 2002. Seven years later, he is recognized throughout the League as one of the best head coaches in the game after resurrecting Carolina's fortunes in a fashion no one could have foreseen.

Inheriting a team coming off of a 1-15 season in 2001, Fox has directed Carolina to two playoff appearances, two NFC Championship games and a Super Bowl appearance. In his seventh season, the Panthers have averaged just under 10 wins a year, and Fox has compiled a 56-47 overall record, including the postseason.

STEELERS RADIO COVERAGE

For the ninth consecutive year, WDVE-FM (102.5) and WBGG-AM (970) are carrying all Steelers games.

Additionally, Steelers games can be heard on a 46-station network spanning Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Tennessee and Maryland.

For the 15th straight season, Bill Hillgrove serves as the "Voice of the Steelers" and handles play-by-play duties for the broadcast. Joining Hillgrove for his 11th season as an expert analyst is Tunch Ilkin. Ilkin, the former Steelers All-Pro offensive tackle, made his radio broadcasting debut in 1998. Joining the team for his seventh season is former Steeler offensive lineman Craig Wolfley, who provides sideline analysis.

STEELERS' LAST GAME

Pittsburgh 12, Minnesota 10

Saturday, August 23 • Minneapolis, Minn. (Metrodome)

Pittsburgh Team Notes:

- Pittsburgh improved to 2-1 in the 2008 preseason. The Steelers are now 106-95-1 all-time in the preseason, including a 6-2 mark under Head Coach Mike Tomlin.
- The Steelers improved to 3-8 all-time against the Minnesota Vikings in the preseason.
- After a scoreless first quarter, Minnesota jumped on board first in the second quarter as RB Adrian Peterson scored from one yard out to make it 7-0 with 14:12 remaining in the first half. The drive started after Steelers rookie RB Rashard Mendenhall fumbled near midfield.
- The Steelers trimmed the lead to 7-3 as K Jeff Reed booted a 35-yard field goal with 6:40 left in the second quarter. The scoring drive was set up by CB Ike Taylor's interception of QB Gus Frerotte.
- Minnesota upped the lead to 10-3 in the third quarter as K Ryan Longwell connected on a 37-yard field goal with 10:06 left.
- Reed cut the lead to 10-6 with just under three minutes remaining in the third quarter with a 43-yard field goal, his second of the night.
- Reed made it 10-9 in the fourth quarter as he booted a 37-yarder.
- With just four seconds remaining in the game, Reed hit a game-winning 47-yard field goal to give Pittsburgh the 12-10 victory.
- The Steelers finished with 281 yards of total offense (102 rushing, 179 passing) while limiting the Vikings to just 163 total yards (32 rushing, 131 passing).
- Pittsburgh converted 3-of-4 fourth downs but just 5-of-17 (29 percent) third downs.
- The Steelers totaled 19 first downs, including 13 passing. Minnesota had 12 first downs (one rushing).
- The Steelers controlled the ball for most of the game, finishing with 36:23 in time of possession to the Vikings' 23:37.
- Both teams were penalized a number of times, including Pittsburgh's eight (for 65 yards) and Minnesota's 10 (for 75 yards).
- The Steelers finished with four sacks, their most of the preseason.
- P Daniel Sepulveda, QB Charlie Batch, TE Cody Boyd, S Ryan Mundy and LB Mike Humpal did not dress for the Steelers.

SERIES NOTES

Series History: Series began in 1996

Overall: Pittsburgh leads 3-1

At Pittsburgh: Pittsburgh leads 2-0

At Carolina: Series tied 1-1

Neutral Sites: n/a

Last Regular-Season Meeting: Dec. 17, 2006 (in Charlotte)
Pittsburgh 37, Carolina 3

Preseason: Pittsburgh leads 5-4

(preseason record not included in overall series record)

Pittsburgh is 5-4 all-time against the Carolina Panthers in the preseason...the Steelers are 2-1 at home against the Panthers and 3-3 in Charlotte...Pittsburgh will play Carolina in its preseason finale for the eighth time since 1997 (1997, '98, '03, '04, '05, '06, '07) and is 4-3 in those games...last year, the Steelers captured a 19-3 victory over the Panthers in Charlotte in the preseason finale for both teams...the Steelers have a 3-1 record versus Carolina in the regular season, defeating the Panthers, 37-3, in the last matchup on Dec. 17, 2006, at Bank of American Stadium.

TEAM NOTES

Steelers in the Preseason: Pittsburgh owns a 106-95-1 all-time record in the preseason.

This marks the 10th time the Steelers and Panthers will be meeting in the preseason with Pittsburgh leading the series 5-4. Pittsburgh won last year's preseason matchup, 19-3, at Bank of America Stadium in the preseason finale. The teams are playing in the final preseason game for each squad for the eighth time since 1997.

Camping Out: Pittsburgh concluded its 42nd consecutive year of preseason training camp in Latrobe, Pa. earlier this week. The Steelers' 42-year tenure at Saint Vincent College ranks second (tied with Minnesota) in the NFL for training camp longevity, trailing only the Green Bay Packers, who have held their preseason camp at St. Norbert College in DePere, Wisc., for 50 years.

Steelers-Panthers Connections: Several Steelers have ties to the Panthers and the Charlotte area.

K Jeff Reed (Charlotte), RB Willie Parker (Clinton) and LS Greg Warren (Goldsboro) all played at North Carolina and also hail from the Tar Heel state. OG Chris Kemoeatu is the brother of Panthers' DT Ma'ake Kemoeatu.

Panthers with connections to the Steelers and Pittsburgh include Head Coach John Fox, who coached with the Steelers from 1989-91 and the University of Pittsburgh from 1986-88. Special teams coach Danny Crossman played defensive back at University of Pittsburgh from 1987-89. Defensive line coach Sal Sunseri was born in Pittsburgh and played (1979-81) and coached (1985-92) at Pitt. Secondary coach Tim Lewis was a defensive back at Pitt (1979-82) and then coached for the Steelers from 1995-2003. RB Nick Goings and OT Jeff Otah played for Pitt while LB Dan Conner and LB Tim Shaw went to Penn State. CB Ricardo Colclough was originally drafted by the Steelers in the second round of the 2004 NFL Draft. OG Keydrick Vincent was signed by the Steelers as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2001 and played in Pittsburgh from 2001-04.

Facing The Best: The Steelers will play half of their season against 2007 playoff teams, including both teams who played in Super Bowl XLII. No team in the league has a higher combined opponents' winning percentage from last season than the .598 of the Steelers' opponents.

Several Steelers and Panthers are products of the same colleges, including the following:

The Steelers will host AFC North-rival Cincinnati at Heinz Field on a Thursday night (Week 12).

Defending The Crown: The Steelers win in Week 16 last year at the St. Louis Rams combined with the Cleveland Browns losing to the Cincinnati Bengals the same weekend gave Pittsburgh the AFC North crown for the first time since 2004.

The Steelers have won 18 division titles since the NFL merger in 1970, the most in the AFC during that time. It also marked the third time they have captured the AFC North Crown since 2002.

Heinz Field Advantage: Pittsburgh is 25-7 at home over the past four seasons, finishing with a 7-1 mark in 2007.

Pittsburgh finished the 2004 regular season with an undefeated (8-0) home record for only the third time in team history and for the first time in 25 years, ultimately advancing to the AFC Championship Game.

The Steelers finished the 1979 regular season with an undefeated home record (8-0) and eventually won Super Bowl XIV. The Steelers were also undefeated at home (7-0) in 1972.

Defense! Defense! Defense! The Steelers defense was nearly an immovable object all season long last year and led the league in total defense (266.4 avg.).

Pittsburgh allowed 269 points (16.8 avg.) last year, which was second in the AFC and in the NFL.

Pittsburgh did not allow a first-half touchdown in its first five games of the year before Week 7 at Denver .

The Steelers allowed just 47 total points through their first five games, the fourth-lowest total in team history during that span and the least since they gave up a team-best 38 points through five games in 1937.

The Steelers posted two shutouts last year, including Week 5 versus Seattle and Week 12 versus Miami. The Steelers limited the Seahawks to just 144 yards of total offense, including 38 on the ground. Pittsburgh had three sacks and one interception in the win.

In their 34-7 victory over Cleveland in Week 1, the Steelers forced five turnovers (two interceptions, three fumbles), sacked the Browns' quarterbacks six times and limited Cleveland's offense to just 221 yards, including 46 on the ground.

In Week 2 against Buffalo, Pittsburgh allowed only three points while sacking Bills' quarterback J.P. Losman four times.

Pittsburgh will host the New York Giants, defending Super Bowl champions, at Heinz Field in Week 8 while traveling to AFC champion, New England, in Week 13.

Additionally, the Steelers play six teams that made it to the 2007 postseason, including at Jacksonville (Week 5), at Washington (Week 9), home versus Indianapolis (Week 10), San Diego (Week 11) and Dallas (Week 14), and at Tennessee (Week 16).

Steelers In The Spotlight: The Steelers are already slated to play the maximum of five (initially scheduled) night games in 2008, including two Sunday Night games, two Monday Night games and one Thursday Night game.

The Steelers will host the Baltimore Ravens in Week 4 on Monday Night Football and will battle the Washington Redskins also on Monday Night in Week 9 at FedEx Field.

Pittsburgh travels for a pair of Sunday Night matchups, including at Cleveland (Week 2) and at Jacksonville (Week 5).

LOOKING AHEAD...

The Steelers open their 2008 regular-season schedule as they host the Houston Texans in Week 1 at Heinz Field. Kickoff is set for 1 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 7. Pittsburgh has won five straight season openers, including a 34-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns last year in Cleveland.

If You Build It, They Will Come: The Steelers averaged 62,084 at Heinz Field last year.

Pittsburgh broke the team home attendance record in 2005 by averaging 63,429 (507,434 total).

Pittsburgh has sold out 275 straight games at home, dating back to Nov. 5, 1972 versus Cincinnati. Last year, they also drew tremendous fan support as they averaged 62,433 at Heinz Field. In the 2006 season opener against Miami, the attendance of 64,927 was the third-largest in team history.

Pittsburgh's largest average attendance at Three Rivers Stadium was 58,077 in 1998. Following is a look at the team's average attendance in its seven years at Heinz Field:

Year	Total Attendance	Avg.
2001	499,191	62,399
2002	490,274	61,284
2003	477,584	59,698
2004	507,385	63,423
2005	507,434 •	63,429 •
2006	499,461	62,433
2007	496,675	62,084

• Team record

Run Stuffers: The Steelers have allowed only three 100-yard rushers in the past 66 games (postseason included), including just two last year (Thomas Jones - N.Y. Jets; Fred Taylor - Jacksonville). The Steelers previously had a streak of 34 straight games in which it did not allow a 100-yard rusher.

Prior to Jones (Week 11), the last time the Steelers allowed a 100-yard rusher was Week 12 of the 2005 season when Edgerrin James eclipsed the century mark for rushing yards.

The following is a look at the Pro Bowl running backs who have been unable to gain 100 yards rushing in a game against the Steelers during the past 66 games (including postseason):

Player	Date	Yards (Att.)
Steven Jackson, St. Louis	12/20/07	85 yds. (12 att.)

Controlling The Clock: Pittsburgh did an excellent job in 2007 in controlling the time of possession.

The Steelers controlled the clock in 14 of the 16 games and averaged holding the ball for 33:18 in 2007.

Among The Best: Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Pittsburgh Steelers own the second-best record in the NFL.

The following is a look at the top five regular-season records since the merger in 1970:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
1. Miami Dolphins	354	228	2	.610
2. Pittsburgh Steelers	351	231	2	.605
3. Dallas Cowboys	347	237	0	.595
4. Denver Broncos	337	239	6	.585
5. San Francisco 49ers	330	251	3	.569

Additionally, Pittsburgh owns the third-best record in the NFL since the free-agency era (since 1993) with a 148-91-1 (.619) record.

The following is a look at the top five regular-season records in the free agency era (since 1993):

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
1. Green Bay Packers	152	88	0	.633
2. New England Patriots	150	90	0	.625
3. Pittsburgh Steelers	148	91	1	.619
4. Denver Broncos	144	96	0	.600
5. Kansas City Chiefs	135	105	0	.563

Regular-Season Success: Pittsburgh owns the fifth-best record in the regular season in the entire NFL over the past 11 years. The Steelers have averaged 9.6 wins per year and have earned five playoff berths in that time period.

The following are the top five teams in regular-season winning percentage from 1997-2007:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.	Playoff Berths
New England	118	58	0	.670	8
Green Bay	110	66	0	.625	7
Indianapolis	109	67	0	.619	8
Denver	108	68	0	.614	6
Pittsburgh	106	69	1	.605	6

200 Plateau: Pittsburgh rushed for more than 200 yards twice in 2007, including a season-high 206 on 42 attempts in Week 1 at Cleveland. The Steelers then rushed for 205 yards in Week 3 versus San Francisco.

Since the NFL merger in 1970, Pittsburgh is 95-6 (.941) in the regular season when it rushes for over 200 yards in a game. The Steelers have won 24 straight games in which they have eclipsed that mark for rushing yards.

Pittsburgh is 7-0 all-time in the postseason when rushing for over 200 yards.

Picking Your Poison: Pittsburgh, which had 11 interceptions in 2007, had two picks in its Week 16 victory over the St. Louis Rams.

CB Ike Taylor, who led the team with three interceptions on the year, returned an interception 51 yards for a touchdown to seal the victory over the Rams in the fourth quarter. It was his first career interception returned for a score.

CB Deshaea Townsend and S Anthony Smith each had two picks this season, while CB Bryant McFadden, LB James Harrison, LB Larry Foote, and LB James Farrior each had one.

In 2006, the Steelers had 20 interceptions, including six in the final four games. S Troy Polamalu and McFadden led the team with three picks each.

The 20 interceptions were the most since they picked off 20 passes in 1997. The 20 picks rank third (tied) in the AFC and sixth (tied) in the NFL.

Turning Up the Heat: Pittsburgh finished the 2007 season with 36 sacks, including a season-high six in Week 1 at Cleveland and Week 9 versus Baltimore. The 36 sacks ranked sixth in the AFC and 13th (tied) in the NFL.

Sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, however, a record of "passers tackled" was kept prior to that time. Following are the Steelers' single-season sack totals dating back to 1970:

Holding Their Ground: Over the past seven years, Pittsburgh's defense has been among the best in holding its opponents to the fewest rushing yards in the league. The Steelers ranked second in the AFC and third in the NFL by allowing 89.9 rushing yards per game in 2007.

The Steelers began the 2007 season in the same fashion by limiting Cleveland to just 46 rushing yards in the season opener.

Since 2000, Pittsburgh has allowed just 15 100-yard rushers to lead the NFL in that category. Baltimore is second with 18.

During the stretch, the Steelers have given up a league-low 9,836 yards on the ground, including just 1,299 in 2004, best in the NFL.

Following is a look at the number of yards rushing the Steelers have allowed in each of the past seven seasons:

Year	Rushing Yds. Allowed	Avg./Game	AFC/NFL Rank
2001	1,195	85.9	1st/1st
2002	1,375	74.7	1st/1st

2007	1,438	89.9	2nd/3rd
Total	9,836	87.8	1st/1st

In the Red Zone: The Steelers converted 51 of their 55 attempts in the red zone into points in 2007, including 32 touchdowns and 19 field goals. The Steelers had a stretch of 11 straight touchdowns in trips to the red zone earlier in the season.

Their 58.2 percent touchdown ratio inside the opponent's 20-yard line ranked fourth in the AFC and seventh in the NFL.

Following is a look at how the Steelers offense has performed in the red zone in 2007:

COACHING NOTES

Few And Far Between: Head coach Mike Tomlin became just the second head coach in team history to post a winning record in his first season.

Only Bill Cowher finished his first season with a winning record as he led the 1992 team to an 11-5 record and a berth in the playoffs.

Three's Company: Head coach Mike Tomlin won his first three games as an NFL head coach after soundly defeating the Cleveland Browns (Week 1), Buffalo Bills (Week 2) and San Francisco 49ers (Week 3) in consecutive weeks.

Tomlin became only the second Steelers rookie head coach to win his first three games (Bill Cowher).

Successful Start: First-year head coach Mike Tomlin captured his first victory as a head coach with a 34-7 victory over Cleveland in Week 1. He became the third straight Pittsburgh head coach to win his initial contest and the 27-point victory is the largest margin of victory for a first-time head coach in team history.

Both Chuck Noll and Bill Cowher each won their first games of their head coaching careers for the Steelers. Noll knocked off the Detroit Lions, 16-13, in 1969 and Cowher defeated the Houston Oilers, 29-24, in 1992.

Steelers head coaches are 8-7-1 all-time in their first game as head coach of the team.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

Starting In Style: In his first four seasons, QB Ben Roethlisberger owns a 39-16 (.709) record as a starting quarterback in the regular season. That mark is the fourth-best in the NFL among all active quarterbacks.

The following is a look at the starting records of the top five active quarterbacks in the NFL (min. 25 starts):

Name	W	L	T	Pct.
1. Tom Brady, Patriots	86	24	0	.782
2. Philip Rivers, Chargers	25	7	0	.781
3. Tony Romo, Cowboys	19	7	0	.731
4. Ben Roethlisberger, Steelers	39	16	0	.709
5. Peyton Manning, Colts	105	55	0	.656

While guiding the Steelers to the AFC Championship Game for the second straight year in 2005, Roethlisberger became the first NFL quarterback in the modern era to lead his team to consecutive trips to the conference championship in his first two seasons.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and also was the second-youngest quarterback to lead his team to a Super Bowl appearance. At 23 years, 11 months, he was second only to Dan Marino (23 years, four months).

In his rookie year (2004), Roethlisberger became the first quarterback in NFL history to go 13-0 in the regular season, and finished his rookie year with a 14-1 starting record, including the playoffs. No other NFL quarterback has won his first 13 starts in a season, dating back to when the NFL lengthened its schedule from 12 to 14 games in 1961.

Season For The Ages: QB Ben Roethlisberger had statistically the best season in Steelers' history for a quarterback in 2007.

Roethlisberger, who earned his first Pro Bowl selection this year, finished the regular season with a number of records and honors.

Roethlisberger finished with a 104.1 passer rating, which broke his own record set in 2005 (98.6). He also tossed at least one touchdown in a team-record 15 straight games and had a Steelers'-record 32 touchdown passes on the season.

Roethlisberger broke the single-game completion percentage record (85.7 versus Miami in Week 12) and twice had a perfect passer rating (Weeks 9 and 16).

Additionally, Roethlisberger was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week twice and was the FedEx Air Player of the Week once. He tossed a Monday Night Football-record five touchdown passes against Baltimore in Week 9.

Passing Perfection: QB Ben Roethlisberger, who earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl in 2007, has achieved a number of outstanding single-season accomplishments in his three-plus-year career, including achieving a feat three times that is rarely done in the NFL.

Roethlisberger, who set the team's single-season mark for passer rating (104.1) in 2007, has had a perfect passer rating (158.3) three times in his four-year career, tying him with QB Peyton Manning for the most in NFL history (minimum 10 attempts). Roethlisberger became the first player in Steelers history to record a passer rating of 100.0 or better for an entire season.

Roethlisberger most recently accomplished the feat as he finished 16-of-20 passing for 261 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions in the Week 16 of the 2007 season during a win over the St. Louis Rams.

Roethlisberger finished 13-of-16 for 209 yards passing with five touchdowns for a perfect passer rating of 158.3 in the Week 9 victory over the Baltimore Ravens, also in 2007.

Roethlisberger opened the 2005 season with a perfect passer rating in the Steelers' 34-7 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Week 1. He completed 9-of-11 passes for 218 yards with two touchdowns and no INTs.

Roethlisberger's 98.6 passer rating in 2005 ranked third in both the AFC and the NFL. That mark broke the Steelers' season record for passer rating, surpassing his mark of 98.1 set during his rookie year (2004).

In 2004, Roethlisberger nearly had a perfect passer rating against Jacksonville, but came up just 0.3 points shy and finished with a 158.0 passer rating. He completed 14-of-17 passes for 221 yards and two touchdowns against the Jaguars in a 17-16 victory.

In his four seasons, Roethlisberger has 27 games in which he has a rating of 100.0 or better in a game, including his most recent against the St. Louis Rams in Week 16.

3. Ben Roethlisberger (2005)	268	168	62.7
4. Tommy Maddox (2002)	377	234	62.1
5. Kordell Stewart (2001)	442	266	60.2

Home Cooking: QB Ben Roethlisberger owns a 22-6 (.786) mark in his career at Heinz Field, including winning his first eight starts of his career at home.

At Heinz Field, Roethlisberger is 452-of-721 (62.7%) for 5,897 yards with 43 touchdowns and 25 interceptions for a passer rating of 93.8. He has thrown for over 300 yards twice and has 14 multi-touchdown games at home.

Roethlisberger has twice posted a perfect passer rating at home, including most recently in Week 9 of 2007 against Baltimore. He also had a perfect passer rating (158.3) against Tennessee in the 2005 season opener and has posted at least a 125.0 passer rating five times.

The Steelers have scored at least 20 points in 24 of the 28 games at home with Roethlisberger as the starter.

300-Yard Plateau: For his career, QB Ben Roethlisberger has four 300-yard passing games, which is tied with Terry Bradshaw for third on the team's all-time list. He trails only Tommy Maddox (6) and Neil O'Donnell (5).

In Weeks 8 and 9 of 2006, Roethlisberger threw for over 300 yards in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

In Week 9 (2006), Roethlisberger finished with a career-high 433 yards passing against the Denver Broncos on 38-of-54 passing. The previous week at Oakland, he finished with 301 yards.

Passing Fancy: In 2008, QB Ben Roethlisberger has a chance to become the first Steelers' quarterback with three consecutive 3,000-yard seasons. He eclipsed the 3,000-yard passing mark for the second straight season in 2007, tying the team record for consecutive 3,000-yard passing seasons, set by Terry Bradshaw in 1979-80.

Roethlisberger finished with 3,154 passing yards in 2007. He finished with 3,513 passing yards in 2006, which is the second-highest single-season total in team history.

Roethlisberger averaged 234.2 passing yards per game in 2006 and finished 211 yards shy of the team's single-season yardage record set by Terry Bradshaw in 1979.

Roethlisberger became just the fifth different quarterback in Steelers' history to pass for over 3,000 yards in a single season. He joins Terry Bradshaw (twice), Kordell Stewart (twice), Tommy Maddox (once) and Neil O'Donnell (once) for quarterbacks in team history to achieve the feat.

Roethlisberger On The Run: QB Ben Roethlisberger rushed 35 times for 204 yards in 2007 with two touchdowns. His 204 rushing yards were a career high.

Additionally, of his 35 rushes, 17 went for first downs, two of which were touchdown runs (30, 6).

He was second in the NFL in rushing yards among all quarterbacks, trailing just Vince Young (395).

Chart Topper: WR Hines Ward owns three of the top receiving records in Pittsburgh history.

Ward is the team's all-time leader in receiving yards (8,737), receptions (719) and receiving touchdowns (65).

Ward became the team's all-time leader in receiving yards in the Week 16 victory over the St. Louis Rams after finishing with six catches for 59 yards (9.8 avg.). He surpassed Hall of Famer John Stallworth, who finished his career with 8,723 receiving yards.

Ward broke the team's career receiving touchdowns mark in the Week 13 win over the Cincinnati Bengals. He caught two touchdown passes and passed Stallworth at the top of the Steelers' list with his 63rd and 64th career touchdown catches. Stallworth finished his career with 63 touchdown receptions.

Ward became the Steelers' all-time leader in receptions in 2005 versus the Cleveland Browns. He finished with eight catches (for 124 yards) and passed Stallworth (537) for the most in Steelers' history.

Additionally, Ward has 16 career 100-yard receiving games, which are tied for second on the team's all-time list with Louis Lipps (1984-91).

Hines Field: WR Hines Ward was at the top of his game during the last three home games of 2007 despite rainy and snowy conditions at Heinz Field.

In Week 12 versus Miami, Ward caught nine passes for 88 yards (9.8 avg.) in the Steelers 3-0 victory at a rain-soaked Heinz Field.

Ward followed that up with 11 receptions for 90 yards (8.2 avg.) with two touchdowns in Week 13 against the Cincinnati Bengals. His 11 receptions tied for the second-highest total in his career and his two touchdowns marked the 14th career multi-touchdown game.

In the regular-season home finale in Week 15, Ward caught his seventh touchdown pass of the season and finished with three catches for 27 yards (9.0 avg.) as the game was played in the snow throughout much of the contest.

Hauling 'Em In: WR Hines Ward became the first Steelers wide receiver to catch 700 passes in a career after posting 11 catches for 90 yards in Week 13 versus the Cincinnati Bengals. The 11 catches moved him over 700 for his career.

Ward now has 719 career receptions and led the team with 71 catches for 732 yards (10.3 avg.) in 2007. He also led the team with 74 catches for 975 yards (13.2 avg.) with six receiving touchdowns last season.

In 2005, Ward had three multi-touchdown and four 100-yard games. His 14.1-yard receiving average was his highest since 2000. Ward ranked second (tied) in the AFC and third (tied) in the NFL with 11 touchdown receptions in 2005, which was one shy of tying his career best (set in 2002) and of tying the Steelers' single-season mark.

Ward, who has led the Steelers in receiving the past six years, led the team with 69 catches for 975 yards in 2005. He finished just 25 receiving yards shy of his fifth straight 1,000-yard season. In 2004, Ward caught 80 passes for 1,004 yards (12.6 avg.) and four touchdowns.

Red-Zone Receiver: WR Hines Ward has been a major target for Pittsburgh quarterbacks in the red zone.

Since 2002, Ward is second (tied) in the NFL with 33 red-zone touchdowns. After catching four in 2006, Ward had six in 2007, including one most recently versus Jacksonville (Week 15).

The following is a look at the top five active players in the NFL with touchdowns in the red zone since 2002:

Player (Team)	# of Red-Zone TDs
1. Randy Moss (Patriots/Raiders/Vikings)	36
2. Hines Ward (Steelers)	33
Marvin Harrison (Colts)	33
Terrell Owens (Cowboys/Eagles/49ers)	33
5. Antonio Gates (Chargers)	31

Pro Bowl Distinction: WR Hines Ward is the only wide receiver in Steelers history to be voted to four Pro Bowls. Ward's 1,004 receiving yards in 2004 made him the first Steelers receiver to reach 1,000 yards four times during his career with the team.

In 2002, Ward became the first receiver in Steelers history to catch 100 passes (112) in a season. He also became the first Steelers receiver with three consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving. His 12 touchdown receptions in 2002 tied him with Louis Lipps (1985) and Buddy Dial (1961) for the highest single-season total in team history.

Ward was selected to the 2002-05 AFC Pro Bowl squads.

Following is where Ward ranks in Steelers history in several key receiving categories:

Catching Consistency: WR Hines Ward has caught at least one pass in a Steelers' record 146 consecutive games. That streak ranks third among active players for consecutive games with at least one reception.

Jerry Rice (274) and Art Monk (183) own the top all-time record for consecutive games with a reception.

The following is a look at the top three active players in the NFL with at least one reception in consecutive regular-season games:

Player (Team)	Consecutive Games
Marvin Harrison (Colts)	175
Terrell Owens (Cowboys)	167
Hines Ward (Steelers)	146

Ward On The Run: WR Hines Ward's versatility makes him a threat to run the football as well as catch a pass.

Ward has 426 career rushing yards to mark the most by a Steelers wide receiver in team history.

Ward scored his first career rushing touchdown in 2004 against Philadelphia.

Parker Powering Through: Prior to his season-ending injury in Week 16 in 2007, RB Willie Parker led the NFL with 1,316 rushing yards and was looking to become the first Steeler to lead the league in rushing since Bill Dudley did in 1946 with 604 yards rushing. He finished the season fourth in the NFL in rushing yards.

Parker rushed for more than 100 yards in eight games in 2007 and nine of his last 16, dating back to the 2006 season. He had a league-best eight 100-yard rushing games on the year, breaking his previous career high that he set in 2006.

Parker opened the 2007 season with 109 rushing yards at Cleveland and followed up with 126 rushing yards against Buffalo in Week 2. He had a season-high 133 yards rushing in Week 3 versus San Francisco before pounding out 102 yards versus Seattle in Week 5.

Gimme The Rock: RB Willie Parker rushed a league-high 321 times for 1,316 yards (4.1 avg.) in 2007 before suffering a season-ending injury in Week 16, including a season-high 28 attempts twice (Week 5 versus Seattle and Week 13 versus Cincinnati). In 2006, he finished the season with 337 rushing attempts for 1,494 yards.

Parker's 337 rushing attempts in 2006 rank fourth on the team's single-season rushing attempts list. He moved into fourth place ahead of Jerome Bettis, who had 320 in 1996.

In the 2006 season finale, Parker rushed a career-high 37 times for 134 yards. The 37 rushing attempts rank second (tied) all-time on the Steelers' single-game attempts list, tying him with Amos Zereoue (11/10/02 vs. Atlanta). The team record is 41, set by Franco Harris on Oct. 17, 1976, versus Cincinnati.

Parker Proving His Worth: RB Willie Parker rushed for over 1,000 yards for the third consecutive season as he finished the 2007 season with 1,316 yards. He is just the third running back in team history to accomplish the feat (Jerome Bettis, Franco Harris).

Parker finished the 2007 season just 179 yards shy of his career-high 1,494 yards before suffering a season-ending injury in Week 16. He finished the year ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL.

Parker has 21 career 100-yard rushing games and the Steelers are 18-3 in those contests. He had eight 100-yard rushing games in 2007, which ranked fourth on the team's single-season list.

Parker surpassed his previous best from the 2005 season (1,202) after rushing for over 100 yards in seven games last year. His 1,494 rushing yards last year are the third-highest single-season total in team history, finishing just shy of reaching 1,500 for the year.

Home Sweet Home: RB Willie Parker has done some of his best work at Heinz Field throughout his career. Twelve of his 21 100-yard rushing games have come at home.

The following is a comparison of Parker's production at Heinz Field compared to regular-season road contests as a starter during his four-year career:

Statistic	Heinz Field (23 gms.)	Away (23 gms.)
Team record	16-7	12-11
Rushing Yards (Total)	2,337	1,675
Rushing Yards (Avg./Game)	101.6	72.8
Rushing Attempts (Total)	509	404
Rushing Attempts (Avg./Game)	22.1	17.6
Rushing Touchdowns (Total)	10	9
100-Yard Rushing Games	12	9

Opening In Style: In his first three season openers as the starter, RB Willie Parker has put up impressive numbers.

In those three games, Parker has eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark in all three contests and has 78 carries for 385 yards with one touchdown for an average of 128.3 yards per game on the ground. He has also caught five passes for 59 yards (11.8 avg.) in those games.

In 2005 against Tennessee in the season opener, Parker finished with 22 carries for 161 yards (7.3 avg.) and a touchdown while also hauling in a pass for 48 yards. That performance ranks seventh over the past 10 years for most rushing yards on Kickoff Weekend.

Holmes Heating Up: WR Santonio Holmes led the Steelers with 942 yards (18.1 avg.) and eight touchdown receptions in 2007 despite missing three games.

Holmes' 942 yards receiving in 2007 were a new career high, surpassing his 2006 total of 824 yards. He had a career-high 133 yards receiving four catches (33.3 avg.) in the Week 16 win over St. Louis, marking his third 100-yard receiving game of the season and fourth of his career. His performance was highlighted by a career-long 83-yard catch.

Holmes had a breakout day in Week 4 of 2007 at Arizona as he finished with six catches for 128 yards (21.3 avg.) with two touchdowns. His catches tied a career high while his touchdowns were a personal-best. It marked his first multi-touchdown game of his career.

Holmes had his second 100-yard receiving game of last season in Week 9 versus Baltimore as he posted four catches for 110 yards with two touchdowns.

He began the year with two catches for 55 yards (27.5 avg.), including a 40-yard touchdown reception, in the season-opening victory at Cleveland.

As a rookie in 2006, Holmes had 49 receptions for 824 yards (16.8 avg.), both of which ranked second on the team. The 824 receiving yards were the second-most by a Steelers' rookie in team history.

League Leader: WR Santonio Holmes finished the regular season averaging 18.1 yards per reception. His 18.1 average was tops in the league and was the most by a Steeler since WR Louis Lipps posted an 18.9 average (50 receptions for 944 yards) during the 1989 season.

Holmes had 52 catches for 942 yards in 2007.

Miller Time: TE Heath Miller has developed into one of the Steelers most potent offensive weapons. In 2007, he was third on the team with 47 catches for 566 yards (12.0 avg.) and seven touchdowns, which were a new career high. In 2006, he had 393 yards receiving on 34 receptions with five touchdowns.

Miller's blocking ability separates him from many "receiving" tight ends and has played a major role in the success of the Steelers running game.

Miller caught a 22-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger in the 2007 season-opening victory at Cleveland, marking the third straight season he has caught a touchdown pass in the season opener. He also added a 13-yard touchdown catch in Week 5 against Seattle.

Miller recorded his first 100-yard receiving game in the 2006 season-opening victory over Miami. He caught a Heinz Field-record 87-yard touchdown reception from QB Charlie Batch in the fourth quarter and finished the game with three receptions for 101 yards. It marked the longest catch by a TE in the NFL since Byron Chamberlain had an 88-yard reception on Oct. 17, 1999. It was also the longest touchdown hauled in by a tight end since Rich Caster had an 89-yard touchdown catch on Oct. 7, 1974.

Putting His Foote Down: LB Larry Foote had 89 tackles in 2007 along with three sacks and three forced fumbles as he was a main reason the Steelers defense ranked first in the NFL. His 89 tackles ranked third on the team.

Foote continues to be one of the unsung heroes of the Steelers defense. He broke his single-season career high with four sacks and was second on the team with 118 tackles, including 71 solo, in 2006.

In 2005, Foote had his best season to date as he led the team with 123 tackles. He also had three sacks and one fumble recovery on the year. Foote posted a career-high 13 tackles that season versus Jacksonville.

Fantastic Fariior: LB James Fariior signed a new five-year deal with the Steelers after posting another outstanding season in 2007. Fariior led the team with 111 tackles and had a career-high six sacks last season.

Fariior recorded 11 tackles (seven solo), one-half sack, four QB hurries and a forced fumble in Week 12 vs. Miami. In Week 5 against Seattle, he posted five tackles and 2.5 sacks while helping the Steelers shut out the Seahawks and limit them to a mere 38 yards rushing and a total of just 144 yards.

Fariior had an outstanding opening to the 2007 season in the win over the Cleveland Browns. He finished with an eight-yard sack, giving him 15.5 for his career (10th with Pittsburgh), and also forced his 18th career fumble as he knocked the ball loose from Browns RB Jamal Lewis. He finished with seven tackles.

Farrior then posted 10 tackles (eight solo) in Week 2 versus Buffalo and added his second sack of the season in Week 3 against San Francisco.

Farrior, who was named a defensive captain for the third straight season, led the team in 2006 with 154 tackles (104 solo). His 154 tackles last season are the second-most in his career, including the most as a Steeler. He posted 175 in 2001 while playing for the New York Jets.

For his career, he has 10 interceptions, including seven with Pittsburgh and three while playing for the Jets.

Harrison In Charge: LB James Harrison, in his first season as a starter, earned his first Pro Bowl berth in 2007 — in which he was named a starter — while also being named as the Steelers team MVP.

Harrison was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month of November after posting the best game of his career in the Week 9 Monday Night Football victory over the Baltimore Ravens.

Harrison, who led the team with 8.5 sacks this season, finished with nine tackles (eight solo), 3.5 sacks (for 25 yards), three forced fumbles (one on special teams), one fumble recovery and one interception. Harrison was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts.

Harrison is the first player since 1982 (when the NFL recognized sacks as an official stat) to record 3.5 sacks, a fumble recovery and an interception in one game.

On the year, Harrison had 80 tackles, ranking fourth on the team.

Turning The Corner: CB Deshea Townsend continues to be a mainstay in the Steelers secondary after 10 seasons in the league. Townsend was second on the team (tied) with two interceptions in 2007.

In the 2007 season opener at Cleveland, Townsend picked off his 17th career pass. In Week 2 versus Buffalo, Townsend had a team-high 11 tackles.

Last year, Townsend tallied a sack in Week 13 (2006) versus Tampa Bay, giving him 15.5 career sacks. The 15.5 sacks are the most in Steelers' history for a cornerback, surpassing former Pittsburgh defensive back Rod Woodson (13.5). Last season, Townsend had two sacks, two interceptions and one forced fumble.

Man Of Troy: SS Troy Polamalu had 74 tackles in 2007 and 12 passes defended, despite missing five weeks (5, 12, 13, 14, 17) with an injury. He made several key tackles while helping preserve a 31-28 Steelers win over the Browns in Week 10.

Polamalu returned to action in Week 15 against Jacksonville to lead the Steelers with 10 tackles (eight solo) after missing the previous three weeks with a knee injury.

Polamalu finished the 2006 season with 82 tackles (65 solo), one sack, three interceptions, six passes defended and one forced fumble.

In Week 6 versus Kansas City, he picked off his second pass of the season and returned it 49 yards. Polamalu finished with a team-high 10 tackles (nine solo) with three passes defended.

Polamalu, who signed a four-year extension with the team in the 2007 offseason, was selected to his fourth straight Pro Bowl in 2007.

Getting His Kicks: K Jeff Reed was 23-for-25 (.920) in field goals in 2007, with his only misses being a 65-yard attempt at Denver in Week 7 and a 44-yard field goal on a rain-soaked Heinz Field versus Miami in Week 12. He was a perfect 44-for-44 in PATs for a team-high 113 points.

Reed ranks third in scoring in Steelers' history with 616 career points after scoring three points in Week 17 at the Baltimore Ravens. Reed passed Franco Harris on the team's all-time scoring list and became just the fourth player in team history to post at least 600 career points.

Reed has 135 field goals and 211 PATs during his six-year career with the Steelers. He is just the fourth kicker in team history to boot at least 100 field goals in a career, joining Gary Anderson (309), Roy Gerela (146) and Norm Johnson (105).

His 135 career field goals rank third on the team's all-time list.

In 2006, Reed was 20-of-27 in field goals and a perfect 41-for-41 in PATs for a team-high 101 points. He was 10-for-10 on the road in field goals.

Reed booted a 50-yard field goal against Tampa Bay in Week 13 in 2006, marking the longest field goal by an NFL kicker at Heinz Field.

Reed Right On the Road: K Jeff Reed had made 18 straight field goals on the road following his two successful kicks in Cleveland in Week 1 of the 2007 season, but his streak was snapped in Week 7 at Denver as he missed a 65-yard field goal as time expired in the first half.

Reed's last miss prior to that 65-yard attempt away from home was a 41-yard field goal at the RCA Dome against Indianapolis on Nov. 28, 2005.

Preseason Game #1
Pittsburgh 16, Philadelphia 10
Aug. 8, 2008
Heinz Field (57,410)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh won its preseason opener for the third time in four years as it defeated the visiting Philadelphia Eagles, 16-10, at Heinz Field on Aug. 8. The win was the Steelers' fifth in the past six preseason games.

The Steelers first-team offense looked solid as they took the opening kickoff 80 yards that was capped off with a 19-yard touchdown strike from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Santonio Holmes to give Pittsburgh an early 7-0 advantage. On the drive, Roethlisberger was 2-for-2 for 38 yards as he also connected with WR Hines Ward for a 19-yard completion.

Philadelphia responded on the ensuing drive and trimmed the lead to 7-3 as K David Akers booted a 28-yard field goal with just over three minutes remaining in the first quarter.

The Eagles grabbed a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter as QB Donovan McNabb found FB Jason Davis for a three-yard score.

Pittsburgh tied the game at 10-10 later in the second quarter on a 20-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed. However, on the drive backup QB Charlie Batch suffered a fractured collarbone and was replaced by rookie QB Dennis Dixon.

After a scoreless third quarter Reed connected on a pair of field goals in the fourth quarter, including a 50-yarder with 7:28 left in the game to cap the scoring for both teams.

The Steelers managed just 189 yards of total offense, but 80 of them came on the opening drive when the starters saw their only action. Philadelphia collected 271 yards of total offense in the game.

Rookie RB Rashard Mendenhall led the Steelers with 34 yards rushing on seven carries (4.9 avg.). RB Justin Vincent added nine carries for 28 yards (3.1 avg.).

Rookie WR Limas Sweed caught three passes for 23 yards to lead all Steelers.

LB James Farrior, LB Donovan Woods and DE Nick Eason all posted a sack for the Steelers.

Preseason Game #2
Buffalo 24, Pittsburgh 21
Aug. 14, 2008
Rogers Centre (48,434)

TORONTO — Playing their first preseason game in Canada since 1990, the Pittsburgh Steelers suffered a 24-21 setback to the host Buffalo Bills on Aug. 14 at the Rogers Centre. The loss dropped the Steelers to 1-1 in the preseason while the Bills improved to 1-1.

The Steelers came out on their first offensive series of the game and moved the ball to the Bills' 27-yard line before QB Ben Roethlisberger's pass was tipped and picked off by Donte Whitner. Buffalo responded with a 10-play drive that ended with Trent Edwards finding Robert Royal in the end zone for a seven-yard score, giving it a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter.

Buffalo upped the lead to 14-0 on its next possession as Edwards and Royal connected again, this time a 13-yard touchdown strike.

Pittsburgh's first-team offense got on the board on the ensuing drive as Roethlisberger engineered a five-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a 40-yard pass to WR Santonio Holmes for a touchdown.

The Steelers had a chance to cut the lead to 14-10 later in the half but a 42-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed sailed wide left.

After Buffalo took a 17-7 lead on its first drive of the second half, Pittsburgh again cut the lead to three points, 17-14, as rookie first-round draft pick RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from six yards out with 1:56 remaining in the third. However, Buffalo's Leodis McKelvin returned the kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to stretch the Bills' lead to 24-14.

Rookie QB Dennis Dixon gave Pittsburgh hope as he scrambled around the right side with under five minutes to go in the game for a 47-yard score. He later tossed a hail mary pass as time expired that would have given the Steelers the victory, but Buffalo batted away the pass in the end zone.

Pittsburgh finished with 338 yards of total offense to the Bills' 263.

Roethlisberger had another solid game as he finished 9-for-11 for 142 yards with one touchdown and one interception (111.2 passer rating). Dixon was 6-for-15 for 79 yards with one rushing touchdown, while newly-acquired QB Byron Leftwich finished 5-for-11 for 41 yards.

Pittsburgh had three defensive sacks, including one each by LB Lawrence Timmons, LB James Harrison and DE Brett Keisel. Timmons led the Steelers with seven total tackles (four solo).

Preseason Game #3
Pittsburgh 12, Minnesota 10
Aug. 23, 2008
Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome (62,625)

MINNEAPOLIS — K Jeff Reed booted a 47-yard, game-winning field goal with four seconds left in the game to give Pittsburgh a come-from-behind 12-10 victory over the Minnesota Vikings on Aug. 23 at the Metrodome. The win upped the Steelers preseason record to 2-1 while the Vikings fell to 1-2.

Reed was a perfect 4-for-4 in field goals on the night, providing all the points for the Steelers in the victory. He connected on field goals of 35, 43 and 37 yards prior to his game-winning 47-yarder.

The Steelers fell behind 7-0 early in the second quarter as RB Adrian Peterson scored from one yard out. The 47-yard drive began after Steelers' RB Rashard Mendenhall fumbled near midfield.

Reed put Pittsburgh on the board later in the quarter with his 35-yard field goal, which was set up by an interception by CB Ike Taylor off of a QB Gus Frerotte pass attempt.

Minnesota tacked on a 37-yard field goal on its first drive of the second half to make the score 10-3. However, a 56-yard drive by Pittsburgh extended over seven minutes and culminated with a 43-yarder by Reed at the 2:50 mark of the third quarter.

A pair of Reed field goals in the fourth quarter capped the scoring for the Steelers.

Pittsburgh finished with 281 yards of total offense (102 rushing, 179 passing) while limiting the Vikings to just 163 yards, including a mere 32 yards rushing.

QB Ben Roethlisberger finished 10-for-17 for 65 yards passing while backup QB Byron Leftwich was 16-for-23 for 129 yards.

Mendenhall tallied a game-high 79 yards rushing on 15 attempts (5.3 avg.). He also caught two passes for 15 yards out of the backfield.

WR Willie Reid posted five receptions for 55 yards (11.0 avg.), while TE Heath Miller added three catches for 30 yards (10.0 avg.).

Pittsburgh finished with four sacks in the game, including one each by DE Aaron Smith, LB James Harrison, LB LaMarr Woodley and LB Arnold Harrison. Smith, Harrison, Woodley and S Tyrone Carter each added a team-high five tackles.
